

Real-Life Social Skills Video Course

Unit 1: Conversation Skills

Lesson 1: Identifying Good Conversation Candidates

Question 1

Which setting(s) are you most likely to have success initiating conversations? Circle all that apply.

- a. Library
- b. Gym
- c. Business meeting
- d. Break room at work

Question 2

Circle the people below who look the most available to have a conversation.

Question 3

Read through the scenarios below and answer the questions.

Scenario 1

You are eating lunch in the cafeteria at school. You see another student sitting by themselves who appears calm and has a smile on their face.

Based on this scenario, would you consider approaching this person?

YES

NO

Scenario 2

You are riding the city bus. You see a person who has headphones on and is reading a magazine sitting near you.

Based on this scenario, would you consider approaching this person?

YES

NO