

Life Skills Advocate - Product Distribution Policy

Please note that you are more than welcome to use our workbooks and other resources with yourself and the learners you directly support until your heart's content, however, I must ask that you NOT share it with your friends, colleagues, or other people. As well-intentioned as doing so may be, making copies of and sharing any paid product in this manner is considered piracy (i.e., stealing). We are a small company and the sales generated from our online sales enable us to fund many of the free resources found on our website dedicated to supporting neurodiverse learners, families & professionals.

If you wish to purchase multiple workbook licenses for your organization, please reach out to me directly at chris@lifeskillsadvocate.com and we can discuss bulk license discount options. Thank you!
